VOLUNTEER POLICY STATEMENT

Eventing Ireland seeks to involve suitable volunteers who share our values and interest in eventing. Eventing Ireland and its organisers will take all reasonable steps to welcome and support them; value their contribution and provide opportunities to be part of our sport. Were it not for the support of volunteers at every level, our sport would not function

DEFINITION OF A VOLUNTEER

A volunteer is someone who freely gives their time to Eventing Ireland on an unpaid basis. Once a person receives any remuneration from Eventing Ireland they cease to be classed as a volunteer and become a contractor. Volunteers can receive expenses for their functions carried out on behalf of Eventing Ireland subject to prior approval by the Chairman or his/her designate. This may include paying mileage.

VOLUNTEER REQUIREMENTS

As a requirement of membership, all members of Eventing Ireland (aged 18 years and above), are required to volunteer twice during each season (if based in the Munster, North Leinster, South Leinster or Western Regions) or three times (if based in Northern Region). Volunteers may or may not be members of Eventing Ireland.

TRAINING

Eventing Ireland seeks to ensure all volunteers feel equipped for their role, and have opportunities to develop their skills.

Induction

Where appropriate, Volunteers will be given training appropriate to the specific tasks to be undertaken through their role. This is usually done onsite by the organiser or the Steward.

SUPPORT AND RECOGNITION

Contact person

Each volunteer will have a designated official involved in administering the activities they are involved in and who will guide and advise them in their role. This is normally the Event Organiser.

Recognition

All volunteers will be treated in a professional and respectful way.

Volunteers may have loyalties or perceived loyalties to certain Board members, affiliates or participants in the horse sport sector, however they will put these aside during their volunteering role with Eventing Ireland. All Board members, affiliates and participants should be treated equally.

CONDITIONS OF VOLUNTEERING

Safeguarding Policies

Eventing Ireland has undertaken Child Safeguarding, which includes guidelines on good practice in working with young people, Tobacco Alcohol and Drugs, Integration and other topics which all adult volunteers must implement when volunteering with children or vulnerable adults. Child Safeguarding and Welfare policies are available via the Eventing Ireland website HERE.

Insurance

Health and Safety

Eventing Ireland volunteers must, at all times, take care to ensure their own safety and the safety of the people with whom they are working with.

In addition, Eventing Ireland will ensure the Organiser has taken reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Organiser and all the officials and stewards

Confidentiality

The organisation advises volunteers of the need for confidentiality where they have access to sensitive information which is not public knowledge, particularly so in child protection, governance matters and donations etc.

Representing Eventing Ireland

Volunteers must act in the best interest of Eventing Ireland at all times. Volunteers should not purport to represent or speak for Eventing Ireland on any matter unless specifically designated to do so by the Chairperson at private or public meetings, or in the media.

All volunteers have a responsibility to uphold the good name and reputation of Eventing Ireland and may not make statements which would significantly affect or obligate the organisation. When speaking publicly and privately volunteers should promote the views of the organisation and not their own personal opinions.

RESOLVING DIFFICULTIES

Eventing Ireland aims to treat all volunteers fairly, objectively and consistently. They will seek to ensure those volunteers' views are heard, noted, acted upon promptly, and aim for a positive and amicable solution.

Complaints Procedure

In the event of a volunteer needing to complain about something which cannot be resolved, they should refer to Eventing Ireland General Manager in the first instance.

Corrective Action and Ceasing Volunteer Involvement

Volunteers who do not perform their volunteer role satisfactorily will be supported to do so correctly. Alternatively, another role may be undertaken that falls within their capabilities.

Grounds for terminating a volunteer's involvement include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Abuse or mistreatment of others including young people, volunteers, staff or parents.
- Recklessly ignoring policies and procedures
- Being under the influence of alcohol or drugs while in their role
- Theft or misuse of the organisation's resources

POLICY REVIEW

Eventing Ireland will update this document on a continuous basis in line with organisational trends to ensure it remains up to date and meets the needs of volunteers and the organisation.
